Wilson Will Be Elected by Vote of Either Minnesota or California

Democrats Are Fully Confident of Re-election of President Wilson

New York, Nov. 8 .- With the coun- 1202. try's choice of a president in the almost unprecedented status of doubt on the day after election both Democratic and Republican headquarters were scenes of nervous activity and ten-Although both sides claimed chance that the determination of the the 5,570 precincts in Ohio at noon final result with so many states doubt- gave Wilson 454,323; Hughes 386,032. ful might be prolonged perhaps for another day and there was some unofficial talk that the decision might eventually be thrown into the house of representatives.

there might be in some states bitter contests over the integrity of the returns which might be drawn out for days with the result hinging on a re-count. George W. Perkins at Republican headquarters, commenting upon the close vote in some states, declared that a recount might be necessary. Chairman McCormick early today sent telegrams to every state and county chairman where the result appears close commanding them to personally see that the ballot boxes are 97,347. guarded and protected.

Chairman McCormick shortly after 11 o'clock claimed President Wilson's election with 288 electoral votes. "I am basing my conclusion on the official canvass of pivotal states," he
